

I would urge this Commission to require carriers to obtainin consent from customers in the form of opt-in consent under section 222(c)(1). This method indicates an active interest on the part of customers in the service provided and allows the greatest degree of flexibility to the carriers while protecting consumer's CPNI.